

National Honor Society is a club open to juniors and seniors at MHS with above a 3.5 GPA, a record of community and school involvement, and a history of rigorous coursework. Students are invited to apply at the conclusion of their sophomore year for acceptance the following fall. National Honor Society is a national organization that supports community service and involvement by young people. The advisor is Natalie Hollabaugh and meetings are once monthly in room 7C during homeroom.