

The Molalla Crier is a student-led school newspaper that invites all students from all backgrounds to contribute writing, photography, art, cartoons or graphic arts. Carolina Cortes is the current Editor-in-chief, and she is always accepting new contributors. If you want to be heard, this is the place to do it. Regular meetings are in room 111 during homeroom. Mr. Flavin is the advisor.